SAY BRITISH KILLED GERMANS IN U. S. GUISE

BERLIN, Germany, Oct. 17 (via Sayville, L. I.)—Intense indignation has been aroused in Germany, especially in naval and army circles, by the World's despatch from New Orleans containing affidavits which described how the crew of the British patrol ship Baralong shot and killed the captain and 10 of the crew of a German submarine after they had escaped from the boat. Several others were killed before they could get off.

"These affidavits stated that the Baralong flew the American flag and was otherwise masked as an American ship when she approached the submarine, which had stopped the steamship Nicolson in the Irish sea. The affidavits were made when the Nicolson reached New Orleans.

The gist of the story of the misuse of the American flag and of the killing of the defenseless Germans was sent here by wireless and has been featured in the entire German press. In many papers it was displayed prominently in blackface type. The fact that the affidavits are by Americans and that they are printed in the World, which has never been considered as pro-German, gave them sufficient weight for general credence in the astounding story.

In both official and public circles there is speculation as to whether Washington will investigate the British misuse of the American flag in this case or will take any action. Already there are indications that severe retaliation will be demanded, but I understand the government is disposed to wait for all the facts and to confirm them.
